Residency status for tax purposes

Tax residency rules differ by country. Whether an individual is a tax resident of a particular country is often (but not always) based on the amount of time a person spends in a country, the location of a person's residence or place of work. For the United States, tax residency can also be as a result of citizenship or residency.

Please answer BOTH of the following tax residency questions:

1. Are you a tax resident of Australia?

If 'yes', please list all relevant countries and provide your tax identification number (TIN) for each country.

A TIN refers to the number assigned by a country for the purpose of administering its tax laws and is the equivalent of a TFN in Australia. If a TIN is not provided, please list one of the three reasons specified below (A, B or C) for not providing a TIN.

Country 1

TIN If no TIN, list reason A, B or C

Country 2

TIN If no TIN, list reason A, B or C

If there are more than two countries, provide details on a separate sheet and tick this box ☐

Reason A: The country of tax residency does not issue TINs to tax residents.

Reason B: I have not been issued with a TIN.

Reason C: The country of tax residency does not require the TIN to be disclosed.
