Important note: Limited cover applies if you become unemployed for reasons other than sickness or injury. This limited cover will continue for up to 12 months. If your unemployment lasts longer than 12 months, your cover will end. To avoid paying unnecessary insurance fees, please notify us if you remain unemployed beyond 12 months. If your cover ends, you'll need to meet eligibility requirements again when you return to work before your cover can recommence. To recommence your cover you will be required to notify us in writing. Mental Health Exclusion: While you are unemployed and limited cover applies, no salary continuance benefits will be paid for any disability that is directly or indirectly caused by a mental health condition.

Important additional insurance information

The insurer

The insurance cover constitutes a benefit provided in the Super Plan. The insurance cover is provided to the Trustee by AIA Australia Limited (the insurer) (ABN 79 004 837 861, AFSL 230043). The insurer has consented to the statements referable to it in this document in the form and context in which they are included.

Your insurance benefits are subject to the Fund's Trust Deed and the insurer's Policy Document, the main features of which are described in this document. You can obtain a copy of the detailed Policy Document by contacting us. If any of the main features change, we will notify you in writing. If there are any inconsistencies between the information in this document and the terms set out in the Policy Document, the Policy Document will prevail.

How to apply

To apply for death only, TPD only, death and TPD and/or salary continuance cover through the Super Plan, you must complete the 'Insurance cover' section within the Super Plan application form in the PDS. If you do not satisfy the requirements for the short-form personal statement, as described under 'Short-form personal statement', you will need to complete the separate 'Insurance application' form included with this Insurance Book.

The amount and type of information that the insurer will require will depend on your age and the type(s) and amount(s) of cover you are seeking (see 'Short-form personal statement' and the 'Medical evidence' sections for details about underwriting requirements).

The duty to take reasonable care

Before you enter into a life insurance contract, you have a legal duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer before the contract of insurance is entered into.

A misrepresentation is a false answer, an answer that is only partially true, or an answer which does not fairly reflect the truth.

This duty applies to a new contract of insurance and also applies when extending or making changes to existing insurance, and reinstating insurance.

When you apply for life insurance, the insurer conducts a process called underwriting. It's how the insurer decides whether they can cover you, and if so, on what terms and at what cost.

The insurer will ask questions they need to know the answers to. These will be about your personal circumstances, such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and current and past insurance. The information you give the insurer in response to the questions is vital to their decision.

If you do not meet your duty

If you do not meet your legal duty, this can have serious impacts on your insurance. There are different remedies that may be available to the insurer. These are set out in the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). These are intended to put the insurer in the position they would have been in if the duty had been met.

Your cover could be avoided (treated as if it never existed), or its terms may be varied. This may also result in a claim being declined or a benefit being reduced.

Please note that there may be circumstances where the insurer later investigates whether the information given to them was true. For example, the insurer may do this when a claim is made.

Before the insurer exercises any of these remedies, the insurer will explain their reasons and what you can do if you disagree.

Guidance for answering our questions

You are responsible for the information provided to the insurer. When answering their questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond
- Answer every question
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it
- Review your application carefully before it is submitted. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and if necessary, make any corrections) before the application is submitted.

Changes before your cover starts

Before your cover starts, the insurer may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer their questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let the insurer know about any changes when they happen.

If you need help

It's important that you understand this information and the questions the insurer asks. Ask us or a person you trust, such as your adviser for help if you have difficulty understanding the process of obtaining insurance or answering the questions.

If you're having difficulty due to a disability, understanding English or for any other reason, we're here to help. If you want, you can have a support person you trust with you.

Notifying the insurer

If, after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us immediately and we'll let you know whether it has any impact on the cover.

Personal health information

If you apply for insurance cover, you will be required to provide personal health information. If you do not provide us with your relevant personal health information, it will not be possible for the insurer to assess your insurance application.

We require your consent to collect, use or disclose your health and other personal information, which is collected and provided to the insurer to assess your eligibility for insurance and to administer your application.

Should you make a claim for an insurance benefit, your health and other personal information may be disclosed to the insurer, medical practitioners, claims investigators, reinsurers, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) and such other experts as may be nominated by us or the insurer.

If there is any dispute about your entitlement to a disability benefit or any insurance related claim, your health and other personal information may be disclosed to legal and other advisers.

Your privacy is important to us and the insurer. By becoming a member, or otherwise interacting or continuing your relationship with us and the insurer directly or via a representative or intermediary, you confirm that you agree and consent to the collection, use (including holding and storage), disclosure and handling of personal and sensitive information in the manner described in the Trustee's, PIML and the insurer's privacy policies which are available at www.eqt.com.au/global/privacystatement, www.perpetual.com.au/wealthfocus-super-updates and www.aia.com.au respectively.

Short-form personal statement

You can apply for some insurance cover (subject to approval) by completing a short-form personal statement without having to provide other medical evidence if you are under age 55 and applying for:

- death only cover up to $1 million
- TPD only or death and TPD cover up to $1 million
- indemnity salary continuance cover up to $8,000 per month, provided you are able to answer 'no' to all 'yes/no' questions within the 'Insurance cover' section of the Super Plan application form in the PDS.

If you do not satisfy the above requirements, you will need to complete the separate 'Insurance application' form included with this document in order to apply for insurance cover.

Residency status

You must be an Australian resident (see 'Definitions' for details) or currently residing in Australia with a current and valid visa that enables you to work in Australia at the time the insurance cover is taken out.

Commencement of cover

Cover will commence from the date when:

- both the Trustee and insurer agree to accept your application for cover on standard terms and conditions (including insurance fee rates) or
- the insurer receives your written acceptance of any special acceptance terms (in which case you will be notified in writing of the date your cover commences), subject to the first insurance fee being received within 120 days of this date. If no insurance fee is received within 120 days, your cover will be cancelled.

World-wide cover

Insured members are generally covered 24 hours a day and may travel or work in any part of the world. Some limits apply.

Reducing or cancelling cover

You can reduce the sum(s) insured or cancel your death, TPD and/or salary continuance cover at any time by completing the 'Application to reduce or cancel cover' form available from www.perpetual.com.au/super-forms. You can also choose to change your waiting period and/or benefit period for your salary continuance cover.

If you cancel your cover, you will no longer be insured for that cover and you (or your beneficiaries) will not be able to make an insurance claim for that type of cover. Once you have reduced or cancelled any cover, you will need to complete an insurance application form and be assessed by the insurer if you subsequently wish to increase your cover amount or reapply for that type of cover. Your application may not be approved, particularly if your health or lifestyle has changed since you were previously provided with cover.

Cooling-off period for cancellations of cover

If you cancel your cover within 14 days of the date from which your cover commenced or was increased, all cover or the additional cover (as applicable) will be cancelled from the date that cover first commenced and any insurance fees paid for that cover will be refunded to your member account.

Cessation of cover on inactive accounts

Under superannuation law, insurance cover must be cancelled if your account remains inactive for a continuous period of 16 months unless you have elected in writing to keep your cover. For this purpose, an account is deemed 'inactive' if it has not received any contribution (including transfer/rollover from another superannuation fund) for a continuous period of 16 months.

We will notify you once we have not received a contribution for 9, 12 and 15 months. If you would like to maintain your insurance cover, before your account becomes inactive for a continuous period of 16 months, you must do one of the following:

- make a contribution to make your account 'active'
- set up a savings plan to make regular personal contributions to your account so that your account will not be deemed to be inactive in the future
- complete and return the 'Insurance election form', which we'll also provide with our notification, to permanently opt-in for insurance cover (unless you subsequently advise otherwise).

Otherwise, we are required to cancel your insurance cover after the end of the period for which insurance fees have been paid once your account becomes inactive for a continuous period of 16 months.

Reinstatement of cover for inactive accounts

Your cover will be reinstated and treated as if it had never ceased if we receive a request from you to do so within 60 days of cessation, subject to the payment of any backdated insurance fees. After this time, you will need to reapply and be accepted for any insurance cover.

Making a claim

You or your representative must notify the Trustee in writing as soon as possible after you become aware of any claim or potential claim.

You or your representative must provide any information the Trustee or insurer may reasonably require. For any terminal illness, TPD or salary continuance claims, you may also be required to undergo medical examinations to properly assess the claim. If you are overseas at the time, you may be required to return to Australia (at your expense) for assessment of the claim.

Death and TPD cover

Availability of cover

Both death and TPD cover are available on a stand-alone basis or combined with the same or differing amounts.

Interim cover

You will be covered for accidental death and accidental TPD (see 'Definitions' for details) from the date the insurer receives your fully completed insurance application:

- for the lesser of the amount of death and/or TPD cover you have applied for or $1.5 million and
- until the earlier of the date when your application is accepted or declined by the insurer, withdrawn by you or the expiration of 90 days.

No interim death or TPD benefit will be payable if death or TPD is caused directly or indirectly by engaging in any pursuit or pastime that the insurer would normally exclude from cover.

Indexation of cover

Your sum insured amount will be automatically indexed each 1 July as part of the annual insurance review by the lesser of the Consumer Price Index (CPI) or 5%, unless you advise us otherwise in writing. Your insurance fee will be adjusted to allow for the higher sum insured and your age at the time of indexing. For TPD, this will be subject to a maximum of $5 million cover.

Medical evidence

Medical evidence, as specified in the 'Medical evidence tables', will be required if you apply for cover that exceeds relevant dollar limits. These medical evidence requirements are current as at the date of this document but may be varied by the insurer at any time.

Transferring cover

If you are currently insured under another fund or policy, you may transfer your existing cover to the Super Plan to establish your cover under the Super Plan subject to the following conditions:

- you are an Australian resident or holder of a visa and currently residing in Australia under age 55 and an existing Super Plan member
- you are transferring existing death only, TPD only or death and TPD cover of no more than $1,500,000 in total and you are currently gainfully employed
- you provide an up to date statement of the insurance cover you are transferring to the Super Plan confirming the type and level of your existing cover under another fund or insurance policy
- your cover in the other fund or policy must be cancelled on acceptance of the transfer of cover to the Super Plan
- you do not continue the cover under another insurance arrangement
- you have not received or eligible to receive a TPD benefit from any other fund or insurance company
- you are not terminally ill with a life expectancy of less than 24 months
- you are physically capable of undertaking gainful employment for at least 30 hours per week
- you have not been absent from work due to injury or illness for more than 10 days in the last 12 months
- you have no more than one exclusion or an insurance fee loading no greater than 50%
- if your cover in the other fund or policy was accepted on non-standard terms, all loadings, restrictions or exclusions applicable under the other fund or policy will continue to apply to your cover in the Super Plan
- you must provide us with a copy of:
 - an annual statement from the other fund or policy that was issued within 12 months of the date the transfer is requested, or
 - a certificate of currency from the other fund or policy that was issued within 60 days of the date of the transfer is requested
- you have not been previously declined death only or death and TPD cover in the Super Plan or with any insurer
- your cover in the Super Plan will be based on the terms, conditions, insurance fees and occupation categories in accordance with the insurance cover provided in the Super Plan.

Further information can be obtained by referring to the 'Insurance transfer form' available at www.perpetual.com.au/super-forms, which you will need to complete to request a transfer of existing cover.

Important note: You should not cancel any existing insurance cover until you have received written confirmation that your insurance cover has been accepted in the Super Plan. Your replacement cover will not commence in the Super Plan until the insurer accepts your application and the existing insurance in the other fund or policy is cancelled.

Receiving a death or TPD insurance benefit

Any death, terminal illness or TPD insurance benefit paid into the Fund on your behalf will be invested in the Perpetual Cash investment option until we are able to pay the insurance benefit to you or your dependent(s) or to your legal personal representative, or we receive other investment instructions from you or, where permissible, a properly authorised person such as your adviser.

Death

If you die while covered under the Super Plan, your death benefit will generally be paid to one or more of your dependants or to your legal personal representative (see 'Death benefits' in the PDS for further information).

TPD

In the case of total and permanent disablement while you have TPD cover, your claim will be assessed by the insurer against the Policy Document and by the Trustee against the Policy Document, Trust Deed and superannuation law before any TPD benefits are paid.

Limited death benefit

A limited death benefit is automatically included in your stand-alone TPD cover. A lump sum amount of $10,000 will be paid if you die while covered and you have not received a TPD benefit. This amount will not be indexed or paid in the event of suicide within 13 months of the cover commencing.

Claims

The TPD definition that applies to you will generally depend on your age and employment status during the three months before the cause of any TPD claim (see 'Definitions' for details).

Death cover buyback option

If you have death and TPD cover and subsequently a TPD benefit is paid, the amount of your death cover reduces by the TPD benefit amount paid. However, you can select the option to buy back that death cover in this event.

You can select this buyback option:

- when you apply for death and TPD cover or
- at any other time, subject to further underwriting, if all of the following apply:
 - you hold death and TPD cover
 - you are under age 60
 - no TPD benefit has been paid to you.

An additional loading of 4% of your combined death/TPD insurance fee applies if you select this buyback option.

Where you have selected this option, if a TPD benefit is subsequently paid, you can exercise your option to buy back death cover for up to the amount paid as a TPD benefit by written request within 30 days from the first anniversary of the TPD benefit being paid.

The buyback option is also subject to the following conditions:

- the reinstated death cover may be indexed by CPI
- all other loadings and exclusions that applied to the original death benefit will continue to apply to the reinstated death cover amount

- you must have existing applicable cover
- you must be alive at the time of making the request for the buyback.

Where you have selected the buyback option, your right to exercise it, and the insurance fee loading attached to it, ends on the earliest of the following:

- you turn age 65
- your death or TPD cover ceases for any reason other than the payment of a TPD benefit (see 'Cessation of cover' for further details)
- the date you exercise this option.

Definitions

The following definitions will apply to insured members. There are other definitions in the Policy Document which may be relevant, however, key definitions are summarised here. If you'd like information about other definitions, please contact us.

General

Australian resident

An Australian resident includes a person who is:

- either an Australian citizen or holder of an Australian permanent resident visa, or
- a New Zealand citizen holding a current special category visa who is residing in Australia indefinitely.

For death cover

Accidental death

Death by accident means death directly and independently of any other cause from an unforeseen and unintended accident happening to you and caused by violent, external and visible means.

Terminal illness

You will be considered terminally ill if you were diagnosed with an illness and:

1. in the insurer's opinion, formed reasonably in good faith and in light of all available medical evidence, it is likely that you have less than 24 months to live regardless of any treatment undertaken
2. two registered specialist medical practitioners (with at least one of these being a specialist in the relevant area) certify in writing that, despite reasonable medical treatment, it is likely that you have less than 24 months to live and
3. you were diagnosed as terminally ill both while death cover was effective and when the claim is lodged.

For TPD cover

Accidental TPD

TPD by accident means total and permanent disablement directly and independently of any other cause from an unforeseen and unintended accident happening to you and caused by violent, external and visible means.

Standard TPD definition

If you were gainfully employed in the 12 months before the cause of a claim (or on approved unpaid leave or maternity/paternity leave for up to 24 consecutive months with documented evidence of an agreed return to work date) and under age 65 immediately prior to disablement, TPD means that:

- you have suffered a disability as a result of injury, sickness or disease and
- you have not performed any work for an uninterrupted period of at least three consecutive months solely due to the same injury, sickness or disease and
- you are attending and following the advice of a registered medical practitioner and have undergone all reasonable and usual treatment, including rehabilitation for the injury, sickness or disease and
- after considering all of the medical and other evidence the insurer may require, have become, in the insurer's opinion, incapacitated to such an extent that you are unlikely ever to be able to engage in your own or any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience.

Activities of daily living TPD definition

If you were not gainfully employed in the 12 months before the cause of a claim (unless you are on approved unpaid leave or maternity/paternity leave for up to 24 consecutive months) or you are aged 65 or over immediately prior to disablement, TPD means that:

- you have been, for a period of three consecutive months after the occurrence of an injury, sickness or disease, continuously and totally unable to perform at least two of the following activities of daily living as certified by a registered medical practitioner, and provided such continued inability is irreversible and is certified to be such by that registered medical practitioner:
 - bathing – the ability to wash yourself either in the bath or shower or by sponge bath without the standby assistance of another person
 - dressing – the ability to put on and take off all garments and medically necessary braces or artificial limbs usually worn, and to fasten and unfasten them without the standby assistance of another person
 - eating – the ability to feed yourself once food has been prepared and made available, without the standby assistance of another person
 - toileting – the ability to get to and from and on and off the toilet without the standby assistance of another person and the ability to manage bowel and bladder functions through the use of protective undergarments or surgical appliances (if appropriate)
 - transferring – the ability to move in and out of a chair without the assistance of another person and

- after considering all the medical and other evidence the insurer may require, have become incapacitated to such an extent that you are unlikely ever to be able to engage in any occupation for which you are reasonably qualified by education, training or experience.

For death and TPD cover

At work

At work means:

- you are engaged in your normal duties, without limitation or restriction due to sickness or injury, and working normal hours on the date your cover (or increased cover, as applicable) is to commence
- you are not restricted by sickness or injury from being capable of performing your full and normal duties on a full-time basis (for at least 30 hours per week) even though actual employment can be on a full-time, part-time, contract or casual basis and
- you are not in receipt of and/or entitled to claim income support benefits from any source.

If you are on approved leave or not gainfully employed for reasons other than sickness or injury, at work means in the opinion of the insurer you are not restricted by sickness or injury from being capable of performing your full and normal duties on a full-time basis (for at least 30 hours per week) even though you are not then working on a full-time basis and you are not in receipt of and/or entitled to claim income support benefits (for sickness or injury) from any source.

If you do not meet these requirements, you will correspondingly be considered not at work.

New events cover

New events cover means you are only covered for claims arising from a sickness which first became apparent or an injury which first occurred on or after the date your cover commenced or most recently commenced under the Super Plan. This excludes cover for any pre-existing conditions at that time.

Limitations and exclusions

For death cover

No death benefit will be payable by the insurer if a claim arises from:

- death caused by any intentional, self inflicted act whether while sane or insane within 13 calendar months of cover commencing or increasing cover, or
- declared or undeclared war or any act of war, or
- active service or participation in the armed forces of any country, territory or foreign or international organisation in Australia or any foreign country, or
- engagement in (including planning or preparation for) any hostile activity or conflict in Australia or any foreign country.

For TPD cover

No TPD benefit will be payable by the insurer if a claim arises from:

- any intentional, self-inflicted injury or sickness or attempted suicide or self-destruction while sane or insane
- declared or undeclared war or any act of war
- active service or participation in the armed forces of any country, territory or foreign or international organisation in Australia or any foreign country, or
- engagement in (including planning or preparing for) any hostile activity or conflict in Australia or any foreign country.

Salary continuance cover

Salary continuance benefit types

Subject to eligibility you can apply to be insured for a salary continuance benefit for an agreed value or on an indemnity basis. The main difference between the two is that agreed value is subject to a maximum benefit of 100% of your monthly pre-disability income while indemnity is subject to a maximum benefit (excluding any optional superannuation contribution component) of 75% of your monthly pre-disability income.

The following additional conditions apply for an agreed value benefit:

- satisfactory financial evidence must be supplied to the insurer for consideration at the time of applying for cover
- an additional insurance fee cost of 20% of the relevant occupation rate loading
- claim offsets for other sources of income
- you must meet all other eligibility conditions at the time of your claim
- your occupation type is considered professional, white collar or light blue collar at the time of applying for cover.

Availability of agreed value cover

Agreed value salary continuance cover is only available on an ongoing basis to professional, white collar and light blue collar occupation categories.

Employment status

To be approved for cover, you must be permanently and gainfully employed for at least 15 hours per week (unless you are on approved unpaid employment leave) when you apply.

The total disability definition that applies to you will generally depend on your employment status before the cause of any salary continuance claim (see 'Definitions' for details).

Interim cover

You will be covered for accidental disability (see 'Definitions' for details) from the date the insurer receives your fully completed insurance application:

- for the lesser of the amount of cover you have applied for or $10,000 per month and
- until the earlier of the date when your application is accepted or declined by the insurer, withdrawn by you or the expiration of 120 days.

The maximum benefit period for accidental disability cover will be two years.

No interim accidental disability benefit will be payable if disablement is caused directly or indirectly by engaging in any pursuit or pastime that the insurer would normally exclude from cover.

Indexation

Sum insured

Your sum insured amount for either an indemnity basis or agreed value benefit will be automatically indexed each 1 July as part of the annual insurance review by the lesser of CPI or 5%, subject to a maximum monthly benefit of $40,000, unless you advise us otherwise in writing. Your insurance fee will be adjusted to allow for the higher insured monthly benefit and your age at the time of indexing.

Benefit payments

If you have been receiving benefit payments for at least 12 consecutive months, the monthly benefit payment amount will be increased by the lesser of CPI or 5% each year for the duration of your claim, subject to a maximum monthly benefit of $40,000 (reverting to a maximum of $30,000 per month after two years of receiving benefit payments).

Medical evidence

Medical evidence, as specified in the following 'Medical evidence required for salary continuance cover (monthly benefit amount)' table, will be required if you apply for cover that exceeds relevant dollar limits. These medical evidence requirements are current as at the date of this document, but may be varied by the insurer at any time.

3 A Personal Medical Attendant's Report (PMAR) may be requested on a discretionary basis.

4 See 'Short-form personal statement' for further information.

Transferring cover

If you are currently insured under another fund or policy, you may transfer your existing salary continuance cover to the Super Plan to establish your cover in the Super Plan subject to the following conditions:

- you are an Australian resident or holder of a visa and currently residing in Australia under age 55 and an existing Super Plan member
- you are transferring salary continuance cover of no more than $10,000 per month and you are currently gainfully employed for at least 15 hours per week
- you provide an up to date statement of the insurance cover you are transferring to the Super Plan confirming the type and level of your existing cover under another fund or insurance policy
- your cover in the other fund or policy must be cancelled on acceptance of the transfer of cover to the Super Plan
- you do not continue the cover under another insurance arrangement
- you have not received or eligible to receive a claim for salary continuance insurance benefit from the insurer, any other fund or insurance company
- you are not terminally ill with a life expectancy of less than 24 months
- you are physically capable of undertaking gainful employment for at least 30 hours per week
- you have not been absent from work due to injury or illness for more than 10 days in the last 12 months
- you have no more than one exclusion or an insurance fee loading no greater than 50%
- if your cover in the other fund or policy was accepted on non-standard terms, all loadings, restrictions or exclusions applicable under the other fund or policy will continue to apply to your cover in the Super Plan
- you must provide us with a copy of:
 - an annual statement from the other fund or policy that was issued within 12 months of the date the transfer is requested, or
 - a certificate of currency from the other fund or policy that was issued within 60 days of the date of the transfer is requested
- you have not been previously declined death only or death and TPD or salary continuance cover in the Super Plan or with any insurer
- your cover in the Super Plan will be based on the terms, conditions, insurance fees, waiting period, benefit period and occupation categories in accordance with the insurance cover provided in the Super Plan.

Further information can be obtained by referring to the 'Insurance transfer form' available at www.perpetual.com.au/super-forms, which you will need to complete to request a transfer of existing cover.

Important note: You should not cancel any existing insurance cover until you have received written confirmation that your insurance cover has been accepted in the Super Plan. Your replacement cover will not commence in the Super Plan until the insurer accepts your application and the existing insurance in the other fund or policy is cancelled.

Receiving a salary continuance insurance benefit

In the case of total disability or partial disability (see 'Definitions' for details) while you have salary continuance cover, your claim will be assessed by the insurer against the Policy Document and by the Trustee against the Policy Document, Trust Deed and superannuation law before any salary continuance benefits are paid. Salary continuance benefits are taxed as income when paid to a member (see 'Tax on salary continuance benefits' in the PDS for further information).

The benefit you receive will depend on whether you have an agreed value or indemnity benefit type. If you have an agreed value benefit type, you will receive the lesser of the pre-determined amount of monthly benefit and 100% of your salary at the time of your claim. If you have an indemnity benefit type, you will have your benefit assessed at the time of your claim. In either case the claim amount may be reduced by the monthly equivalent of any of the following entitlements in relation to your injury or illness ('benefit offsets'):

- worker's compensation
- motor accident compensation
- benefits or other payments
- any other legislation
- social security benefits
- salary continuance insurance benefits from all insurance companies
- any paid sick leave entitlements
- other ongoing income generated from ownership in a business or practice which was allowable as insurable income at the underwriting stage
- ongoing payment from an employer.

If you receive a salary continuance benefit, you must maintain a Super Plan account that meets our minimum balance. If you don't meet this requirement, any superannuation component forming part of your salary continuance benefit will no longer be payable.

Definitions

The following definitions will apply to insured members for salary continuance cover. There are other definitions in the Policy Document which may be relevant, however, key definitions are summarised here. If you'd like information about other definitions, please contact us.

Accidental disability

Total or partial disability by accident means disablement directly and independently of any other cause from an unforeseen and unintended accident happening to you and caused by violent, external and visible means.

Total disability

If you were gainfully employed for at least 15 hours per week in the three months immediately preceding the occurrence of an event giving rise to a claim (or you are on approved unpaid leave or maternity/paternity leave for up to 24 consecutive months with documented evidence of an agreed return to work date), total disability means disablement resulting solely from sickness or injury that occurs while you have salary continuance cover, which results in you:

1. being continuously unable to perform at least one important duty of your usual occupation necessary to producing income
2. remaining under the regular care and attendance, and following the advice, of a registered medical practitioner in relation to that sickness or injury
3. not engaging in any occupation, whether paid or unpaid
4. suffering a disability which satisfies, in the insurer's opinion, a condition of release under superannuation law.

An important duty is defined as involving 20% or more of overall occupational tasks responsible for generating at least 20% of your pre-disability income (see 'Definitions' for details).

If you are unemployed or gainfully employed for less than 15 hours per week in the three months immediately preceding the occurrence of an event giving rise to a claim (unless you are on approved unpaid leave or maternity/paternity leave for up to 24 consecutive months with documented evidence of an agreed return to work date), then total disability means disablement resulting solely from sickness or injury that occurs while you have salary continuance cover, which results in you:

1. being unable to perform any occupation for which you are reasonably suited by education, training or experience
2. remaining under the regular care and attendance of a registered medical practitioner and are following the advice of that registered medical practitioner in relation to that sickness or injury
3. not engaging in any occupation, whether paid or unpaid
4. suffering a disability which satisfies, in the insurer's opinion, a condition of release under superannuation law. This may mean that you must be Permanently incapacitated to the extent that your ill-health makes it unlikely that you will be gainfully employed ever again, and therefore it is significantly harder to meet this definition than if you were employed.

If you become unemployed for reasons other than sickness or injury, limited cover will apply for up to 12 months. If your unemployment lasts longer than 12 months, your cover will end. To avoid paying unnecessary insurance fees, please notify us if you remain unemployed beyond 12 months. If your cover ends, you'll need to meet eligibility requirements again when you return to work before your cover can recommence. While limited cover applies during unemployment, no salary continuance benefits will be paid for any disability directly or indirectly caused by a mental health condition.

Partial disability

Partial disability means following a period of total disability for at least 14 consecutive days, and solely due to that same sickness or injury, you:

1. are able to perform one or more duties of your usual occupation but are unable to perform all of the duties of your usual occupation
2. are earning an income less than your pre-disability income
3. remain under the regular care and attendance, and following the advice, of a registered medical practitioner in relation to that sickness or injury.

A benefit paid for partial disability will be reduced proportionately to the benefit paid for total disability. It is based on a formula that takes your pre-disability income into consideration regardless of whether your benefit is agreed or indemnity value.

Recurrent disability

If you have returned to work and you suffer a recurrence of your disablement from the same or related cause within 12 months of recovery or your salary continuance benefit ceasing, salary continuance payments will recommence immediately without a waiting period. The maximum claim period will be adjusted to take into account prior claim payments.

Salary

Salary or income means your basic wage or income. It includes your total value of remuneration including salary, fees, regular commission, regular bonus, regular overtime and fringe benefits, salary sacrificed super contributions but excludes mandatory superannuation contributions and unearned income (eg investment or interest income).

Bonuses, overtime earnings and commissions (as applicable) will be calculated based on the averages received by you from your employer over the last three years.

If you are self-employed, a working director or partner in a partnership, salary means the income generated by the business or practice due to your personal exertion or activities, less your share of necessary business expenses and investment income.

Pre-disability income

Pre-disability income means your average gross monthly income over the 12 months immediately before becoming disabled. If you have been working for less than 12 months, your pre-disability income means your average gross monthly income over your total period of employment immediately before becoming disabled.

At work

For salary continuance cover, 'at work' has the same meaning as the definition for death and TPD cover.

New events cover

For salary continuance cover, 'new events cover' has the same meaning as the definition for death and TPD cover.

Claims

For an agreed value benefit, the insurer will assess your claim based on the lesser of your salary (based on details provided at the time you applied for cover) and 100% of your pre-disability income at the time of claim. This is regardless of whether your salary is lower or higher at the time of your claim.

For an indemnity benefit, the insurer will assess your claim based on your pre-disability income at the time of your claim (see 'Definitions' for details).

Rehabilitation expense reimbursement

An additional benefit may be payable to cover the cost of rehabilitation if the insurer determines that your potential to return to gainful employment will be assisted. The rehabilitation expenses must be pre-approved by the insurer.

Limitations and exclusions

No salary continuance benefits will be payable by the insurer if a claim arises wholly or partly, directly or indirectly from:

- any deliberate, self-inflicted injury or attempted suicide or self-destruction while sane or insane
- uncomplicated pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage
- active service in the armed forces of any country or international organisation
- declared or undeclared war or any act of war.

Salary continuance benefits will be paid for a maximum of six months while you travel or reside overseas.

Life stage event option

This option enables you to increase your death only, TPD only, death and TPD and/or salary continuance cover up to certain limits without providing further medical evidence when one of the following life stage events occurs.

Life stage events and cover increase limits

Life stage event	Death/TPD cover increase limit	Salary continuance cover increase limit

The lesser of: 25% of your current sum insured or $250,000.	The lesser of: 25% of your current sum insured or $1,500 per month.
Employment status Your employment status changes from part time to full time.	Not applicable.	The lesser of: 25% of your current sum insured or $1,500 per month.
First mortgage Taking out or increasing a first mortgage over your principal place of residence with a registered mortgage provider. Conditions for life stage event increases

Death and TPD cover

The following conditions apply to increases in death and/or TPD cover under this option:

- you must be under age 65 at the time of applying
- satisfactory proof of the event (eg marriage certificate, birth certificate, mortgage documentation, etc) must be provided to the insurer for consideration
- the request for the increase and supply of documentation must occur within 60 days of the life stage event occurring or, in the case of a business event, within 60 days of you receiving proof of the business event
- applications for more than one event per year are allowed, subject to overall increases not exceeding $250,000 in any 12-month period
- total increases made under this option cannot exceed $1.25 million over the duration of your cover
- your existing cover must be on standard terms without any special exclusions, restrictions or insurance fee loadings
- you must not have made a claim or be eligible to make a claim against the relevant cover under this policy or any other life insurance policy with any company.

The following exclusions and restrictions also apply:

- if you die or become disabled within six months after being provided an increase under this option, the increased death or TPD cover amount will only be paid if death or disablement occurs as a result of an accident or sickness that occurred on or after the date increased cover commenced
- no benefit will be payable on the increased insured amount if the claim is caused as a result of an intentional, self-inflicted act, whether sane or insane, within 13 months from the date of any increase under this option
- if you are not at work on the date that the insurer accepts an increase under this option, new events cover will apply to the increased death or TPD cover amount for 12 consecutive months, at the end of which you are required to be at work for 30 consecutive days to receive full cover (otherwise the new events cover restriction will continue to apply until you are at work for 30 consecutive days).

Salary continuance cover

The following conditions apply to increases in salary continuance cover under this option:

- you must be under age 65 at the time of applying and not self employed
- satisfactory proof of the event (eg marriage certificate, birth certificate, mortgage documentation, etc) must be provided to the insurer for consideration, including current proof of income for agreed value cover
- the request for the increase and supply of documentation must occur within 60 days of the life stage event occurring
- applications for more than one event per year are allowed, subject to the amount insured not exceeding 75% of income (or 85% including super component)
- no more than three increases can be made under this option over the duration of your cover
- your existing cover must be on standard terms without any special exclusions, restrictions or insurance fee loadings
- you must not have made a claim or be eligible to make a claim for salary continuance benefits under this policy or any other life insurance policy with any company
- you have not been declined for insurance cover previously.

If you are not at work on the date that the insurer accepts an increase under this option, new events cover will apply to the increased cover amount for 12 consecutive months, at the end of which you are required to be at work for 30 consecutive days to receive full cover (otherwise the new events cover restriction will continue to apply until you are at work for 30 consecutive days).

Insurance fees

It is important that you ensure your investment balance is sufficient to cover your insurance fees each month. Your insurance cover will lapse if outstanding insurance fees are not paid within 60 days and it cannot be reinstated. You will then have to reapply for cover.

The insurance fee payable is made up of the insurance premium under the Policy Document (which may include loadings, such as occupational loadings, and stamp duty) and an insurance administration fee.

Your insurance fee and, if applicable, amount(s) of cover are calculated:

- on commencement of your cover
- on notification of certain changes to your personal details (eg occupation)
- as part of the annual insurance review.

The insurance fees you will pay will depend upon the following factors:

1. the type(s) of cover you request
2. your gender
3. your age
4. your occupation
5. your smoker status
6. your health
7. your pastimes
8. the sum insured
9. whether you select the TPD buyback option
10. the waiting period before a benefit becomes payable (salary continuance cover only)
11. the benefit period (salary continuance cover only)
12. whether you select a benefit that is agreed value or indemnity (salary continuance cover only).

Age is determined by your age at application date. For existing insured members, annual insurance fees change based on your age at 1 July each year.

Insurance fees are generally deducted from your member account balance monthly (in arrears), on the last business day of the month, while you have cover in the Super Plan. Insurance fees will be deducted from your investment option(s) according to your investment strategy at the time of deduction.

No GST is charged on the insurance fees.

Occupational loading factors

Your occupational loading factor will be determined by your occupation as well as other information you should provide, including qualifications, industry and daily duties. If you don't provide sufficient details, you may be assessed at a higher occupational loading factor resulting in higher insurance fees. You are responsible for providing us with this information and updating us with any changes so that the correct occupational loading factor (refer to annual insurance fee tables below for details) is applied.

There may be small differences in the insurance fees calculated using the rate in the tables and what you're charged due to rounding. Please refer to Perpetual Member Portal or your annual insurance review for the insurance fees charged on your account.

Insurance administration fee

An amount up to 10.50% (inclusive of GST) of the insurance fee is paid to PIML (as the promoter of the Fund) for services it performs to help administer the insurance arrangements for the Fund. The insurance administration fee is included in the insurance fee rates detailed below and is not an additional cost.

Death and/or TPD cover

The following rate tables outline the annual insurance fees payable per $1,000 of insured benefit for your age, gender and smoker status. Additional costs ('loadings') may apply depending on your occupation, health and pastimes which will be assessed based on the information you provide in the Personal Statement included in the 'Insurance application' form. You may be required to provide further details (including medical tests – see 'Medical evidence' for details), depending on the level of cover you are requesting and your age.

Calculating the cost of cover

Death and/or TPD cover

For death only, TPD only and death and TPD, the insurance fee payable will depend on the type(s) of cover and benefit amount(s) you nominate (see Examples 1-3).

Example 1: Death only cover

A male member aged 45 who is a non-smoking light blue collar worker would like to be insured for a benefit of $250,000 in the event of his death (death only cover).

Monthly insurance fee:

$$\begin{aligned} &= \text{Insurance fee rate}^1 \times \text{occupational loading factor}^1 \times \frac{\text{insured benefit}}{12 \times $1,000^2} \\ &= \frac{$1.44 \times 1.15 \times $250,000}{$12,000} \\ &= \text{$34.50 per month} \end{aligned}$$

If you have an equal amount of death and TPD cover, the cost is calculated based entirely on the combined death/TPD insurance fee rate (see Example 2).

Example 2: Death and TPD cover for the same amount

A male member aged 45 who is a non-smoking light blue collar worker would like to be insured for a benefit of $250,000 in the event of his death or TPD.

Monthly insurance fee:

$$\begin{aligned} &= \text{Insurance fee rate}^3 \times \text{occupational loading factor}^3 \times \frac{\text{insured benefit}}{12 \times $1,000^2} \\ &= \frac{$2.29 \times 1.50 \times $250,000}{$12,000} \\ &= \text{$71.56 per month} \end{aligned}$$

However, if you have differing amounts of death and TPD cover (see Example 3):

- the combined death/TPD insurance fee rate will apply to the common sum insured amount and
- the relevant death only or TPD only insurance fee rate will apply to the death or TPD cover above the common sum insured amount.

Example 3: Death and TPD cover for differing amounts

A male member aged 45 who is a non-smoking light blue collar worker would like to be insured for a death benefit of $250,000 and TPD benefit of $200,000.

Monthly insurance fee for the common $200,000 sum insured amount:

$$\begin{aligned} &= \text{Insurance fee rate}^3 \times \text{occupational loading factor}^3 \times \frac{\text{insured benefit}}{12 \times $1,000^2} \\ &= \frac{$2.29 \times 1.50 \times $200,000}{$12,000} \\ &= \text{$57.25 per month} \\ &\text{plus} \end{aligned}$$

Monthly insurance fee for the additional $50,000 death cover:

$$\begin{aligned} &= \text{Insurance fee rate}^1 \times \text{occupational loading factor}^1 \times \frac{\text{insured benefit}}{12 \times $1,000^2} \\ &= \frac{$1.44 \times 1.15 \times $50,000}{$12,000} \\ &= \text{$6.90 per month} \end{aligned}$$

Total monthly insurance fee:

$$= $57.25 + $6.90 \text{ per month} = \text{$64.15 per month}$$

- 1 From annual insurance fee rate table for death only cover.
- 2 Insurance fee rates are expressed per $1,000 of the sum insured.
- 3 From annual insurance fee rate table for combined death and TPD cover.

Salary continuance cover

For salary continuance cover, the insurance fee payable will depend on the benefit amount you nominate and the basis of your cover (see Example 4).

Example 4: Benefit amount and insurance fee

A female member aged 40 is a non-smoking white collar worker. She currently earns an annual salary of $75,000 (excluding super) and would like to take out salary continuance cover in the event of a disablement that will prevent her from working. She would like the benefit to be paid over two years, have a 60 day waiting period and a 10% super contribution component.

Monthly insured benefit:

$$\begin{aligned} &= \frac{(75\% \text{ of annual salary})}{12 \text{ months}} + \frac{(10\% \text{ super component})}{12 \text{ months}} \\ &= \frac{(75\% \times $75,000)}{12} + \frac{(10\% \times $75,000)}{12} \\ &= \frac{$56,250}{12} + \frac{$7,500}{12} \\ &= $4,687.50 + $625.00 = $5,312.50 \end{aligned}$$

Monthly insurance fee:

$$\begin{aligned} &= \text{Insurance fee rate}^1 \times \text{occupational loading factor}^1 \times \frac{\text{insured benefit}}{12 \times $100^2} \\ &= \frac{$25.08 \times 1.0 \times $5,312.50}{$1,200} \\ &= \text{$111.03 per month (indemnity basis)} \\ &= $111.03 \times 1.2 = \text{$133.24 per month (agreed value basis)} \end{aligned}$$

In this example, upon payment of a disablement claim by the insurer, she will receive:

- a monthly benefit of $4,687.50* (less PAYG tax) and
- a monthly amount of $625.00* paid by us into her Super Plan account as a super contribution.

*For cover provided on an indemnity basis, the benefit payable may be lower if at claim time she is earning less than $75,000 per annum.

- 1 From annual insurance fee rate tables for salary continuance cover.
- 2 Insurance fee rates are expressed per $100 of the monthly benefit.

If actual monthly income is greater than $40,000, the maximum sum insured is calculated as 75% of the first $40,000, then 20% of the amount in excess of $40,000 up to the maximum monthly sum insured of $40,000. This equates to an actual monthly income of $90,000.
