Important notes

- You may split up to 85% of concessional contributions (this includes superannuation guarantee and other employer contributions, salary sacrifice and personal contributions for which a tax deduction has been claimed) up to the concessional contributions cap.
- · To be able to split contributions with your spouse, your spouse must meet one of the following criteria:
 - Your spouse has not yet reached their preservation age or
 - Your spouse has reached their preservation age but is aged less than 65 years and has not retired from the workforce or has never been gainfully employed for 10 or more hours per week.
- The definition of 'spouse' includes married and de-facto couples. A person is in a de-facto relationship when they are not legally married to their partner but living with them in a bona fide domestic basis in a relationship as a couple.
- · Preservation age will be:
 - 55 if you were born prior to 1 July 1960
 - 56 if you were born between 1 July 1960 & 30 June 1961
 - 57 if you were born between 1 July 1961 & 30 June 1962
 - 58 if you were born between 1 July 1962 & 30 June 1963
 - 59 if you were born between 1 July 1963 & 30 June 1964
 - 60 if were born after 30 June 1964.
- Contributions made in a financial year may only be split after the end of that financial year (or during the financial year if you are withdrawing your entire benefit).
- You may only make one application to split contributions in the Perpetual WealthFocus Super Plan per year.
- You have up until the following 30 June to request your contributions to be split. For example you will have until 30 June 2021 to split contributions made between 1 July 2019 and 30 June 2020.
- On receipt of a valid application Perpetual will transfer the superannuation contribution amount as soon as practicable within 90 days.
- Minimum balance and minimum investment requirements are waived for your spouse when they receive a split superannuation contribution amount into their superannuation product or service with Perpetual.
- We have the right to reject the application if we have not received all the required information or the application does not comply with requirements.
