Stretch Reconciliation Action Plan

INVESTING FOR OUR FUTURE

2016-2019

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY AND TRADITIONAL OWNERS

Perpetual acknowledges the Traditional Owners of this land, recognising their connection to land, waters and community. We pay our respects to Australia's First Peoples, and to their Elders past and present.

Sustainable Investment for Communities

The "Sustainable Investment for Communities" symbol at the centre of the cover artwork design represents community members and Perpetual coming together to help achieve community goals through sustainable, long-term trust and investment management.

The symbol represents the long-term partnership approach Perpetual offers its clients, working with them over generations. The outer circle of the symbol represents community members and Perpetual coming together to learn about a community's vision, goals and priorities, and working together to create a long-term plan to achieve these goals.

The inner circles represent Perpetual and the community, built around a core value of trust and relationships. The circles surrounding the central symbol represent the ripple effect on the wider community that a long-term partnership between the community and Perpetual can have.

PLANNING FOR OUR FUTURE

I am pleased to present Perpetual's second Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP).

At Perpetual we are proud to have been trusted by generations of Australians to grow and protect their wealth, and plan for the future. This drives our commitment to developing positive, long-term financial outcomes for Australian individuals, families, organisations and communities. Our RAP outlines the initiatives that support our commitment to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and organisations and indicates where we want to make a sustainable difference.

Since we launched our inaugural RAP in August 2013, we have achieved significant progress, moving from the 'Reflect' to the 'Stretch' stage of the plan. This progress has included the formation of new relationships with organisations supporting communities in Cape York through the Jawun program. The program provides our employees with the opportunity to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities by sharing their skills and contributing to the progress of community projects.

Our employees also mentor students participating in the Australian Indigenous Education Foundation's (AIEF) school scholarship program, which receives funding from one of the philanthropic trusts we are proud to manage. As part of our involvement with AIEF, members of our Executive Team and I have attended the Garma Festival which underlines why we need to continue to support and invest in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities both as a company and as individuals.

We look forward to continuing to strengthen our relationships and finding opportunities to grow with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and suppliers with whom we engage.

OUR VISION FOR RECONCILIATION

Our vision for reconciliation is a better, more equal Australia, where every child can go to school, grow up, have a job and make a contribution.

Where every community is safe to live, work and play.

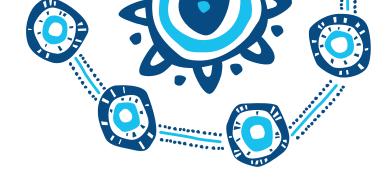

Securing financial independence is a big milestone in creating healthy, thriving communities. Financial independence offers individuals and communities the freedom to make decisions on their own terms.

At Perpetual, we are supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities to achieving better financial independence. We partner with organisations that help keep children in school so they are better able to find employment. We work with community clients as a trustee and investment manager, to help them build education and employment programs, preserve language and culture, expand community services, promote health and wellbeing and build commercial opportunities. Our employees give their time and skills to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations so they can keep focused on serving the communities around them. We engage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander businesses as suppliers to contribute to economic development.

We believe everyone deserves financial independence and we are committed to helping make this a reality for Australia's First Peoples. This is our way of moving forward together for a just and equitable Australia.

Perpetual launched its inaugural RAP in August 2013 with aims to deepen our relationships, our respect and opportunities with our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients, suppliers, our employees and the wider Perpetual community.

This Stretch RAP is the next step in our journey and builds on the following activities, which were commenced in our previous 2013/2014 Reflect RAP.

PROGRESS AND LEARNINGS FROM OUR REFLECT RAP

- Development of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural protocol document
- Development of a cross-functional RAP Working Group to ensure rigour and governance around our RAP responsibilities
- Executive Team training in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural protocols
- Cultural awareness training for senior leaders delivered by an Aboriginal owned training organisation
- Completion of and attendance at several events marking National Reconciliation Week and NAIDOC Week, in addition to the Garma Festival, which was attended by Perpetual leaders
- Development of an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment strategy
- Financial and 'in kind' support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander businesses and youth through Jawun and the Australian Indigenous Education Foundation
- Becoming a financial member of Supply Nation and procuring more than $200,000 annually on goods and services from Supply Nation suppliers

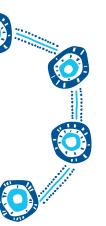

- Identifying and cataloguing some of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art held by Perpetual
- Learnings from YARN Australia
   CEO Warren Roberts who facilitated a roundtable discussion with the RAP Working Group in August 2015
- Formed relationships with communities in Cape York, the Pilbara, the Kimberley and South Australia

Perpetual learned a number of lessons through this process:

- There are challenges in attracting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to apply for roles within our organisation
- The pace of change in our organisation so far is about right and we need to continue to proceed respectfully, listening to important stakeholders and the community themselves
- The support of our Board and CEO has proved integral to our success

Our employees who have completed the Jawun secondment program also share significant learnings from their time on the program.

Jawun means 'friend' or 'family' in Kuku Yalanji language which represents the role the Jawun program plays in partnering corporate Australia with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations across the country.

Perpetual annually seconds employees from across our business to work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations in the Cape York region of Far North Queensland. Secondees play a significant part in community-building projects and their contributions are greatly appreciated.

Secondees are often seconded to Cape York Partnership (CYP), an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander policy reform and leadership organisation dedicated to empowering First Australians in Cape York.

CYP is made up of various entities covering education, leadership, employment, policy, health/social issues and enterprise. Their goal is to transform First Australian communities by fostering education, responsibility and economic engagement, moving away from a support of passive welfare.

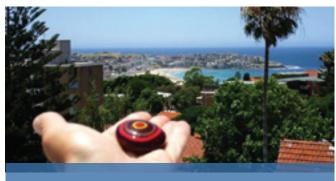

Hope Vale resident Joanne (far right) spoke with secondee Claire Crethar about parenting for an article in Cape Magazine.

SECONDEE EXPERIENCES

Secondees' experiences in Cape York stay with them well after they return home The burnie bean is presented to each secondee on their final day. It represents the connection between the people and land of Cape York to the secondees. The beans are painted by Cape York artist Ivy Minniecon.

It was a truly unforgettable experience and one I'm certainly very grateful for. It's very easy for us to get caught up in our own 'first world problems' and forget about the real issues, such as lack of education, poverty, family violence, unemployment, lack of opportunities, alcohol and drug abuse facing our fellow Australians. The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people of this country have a fascinating history and culture and I would encourage everyone to become more involved in embracing it.

Ryan Morcom

I now have a deeper awareness and understanding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and importantly, the daily issues faced by many communities that often don't have access to the resources that many other Australians do. This general cultural awareness will improve my ability to understand and work with the diversity of employees and clients we have at Perpetual.

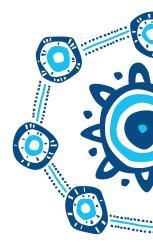

Claire Crethar

The Jawun secondment was a chance to not only explore a different line of work, but to also experience culture on a different scale to what I am used to. I was able to make friends from across Australia and hear stories told by locals which you would never think of hearing back home. It was definitely an experience I'm not going to forget and would love to try again.

Morgan Gallop

I hoped to finish the Jawun program having achieved two objectives, to increase my understanding of and positively contribute to the current state of Australian Indigenous affairs, and to test my capabilities in a foreign environment. I can wholeheartedly say the program enabled me to achieve both of these objectives (however small) and so much more.

MOVING FORWARD UNDER THIS RAP

RELATIONSHIPS

RESPECT

OPPORTUNITIES

We work with more than 15
Aboriginal community clients across
South Australia, Western Australia,
Queensland and the Northern Territory. These relationships have led to funding scholarships, subsidising vital community services,
jobs creation and building sports facilities.

Moving forward, we will continue our focus on building trusted relationships with our Aboriginal community clients. We will also continue to support their aspirations via the sharing of practical knowledge and skills.

At Perpetual, we set expectations about the way we want our employees to work together with our clients, suppliers and each other. We cofounded Australia's first Cultural Capability Standard for Native Title trustees in May 2015. Beyond Native Title trusts, we were the first Australian fund manager to launch a RAP. We continue to invest into activities that will allow us to engage successfully with our Aboriginal community clients, generate passion amongst our employees and demonstrate a deeper understanding of the significant contribution of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

We have procurement targets with Supply Nation businesses, are a member of the Business Council of Australia Business Indigenous Network (BIN), have become a Jawun Secondment Partner and are an Australian Indigenous Education Foundation (AIEF) supporter.

We consider these strategic partnerships as our way of contributing to greater opportunity for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

The Perpetual Diversity Council oversees and governs the RAP.

The Chair of the Diversity Council is Perpetual CEO, Geoff Lloyd.

The RAP Working Group is comprised of Perpetual employees, which includes one Aboriginal employee.

It is responsible for leading the development and implementation of the RAP. The RAP Working Group reports to the Diversity Council.
